

The Teddy Bear Club – Le club nounours

Le petit bulletin de la semaine

Semaine du 9 au 13 mars

Cette semaine au Moyen Jardin...

Academic Activities:

Literacy:

- The children will trace the uppercase letter Q by rubbing Quarters in their cahiers d'écriture.
- They will demonstrate our rhyming knowledge by identifying words that rhyme.

Math: We will make and identify patterns using different attributes of our bodies.

Science: Why is it so important to recycle? We will sort different items according to material and place them in recycling receptacles. We will also reuse materials to create a collage. Books: Caillou apprend à recycler de Kim Thompson; Where Does the Garbage Go? by Paul Showers. Song: "3 Rs" by Jack Johnson.

French: The children will learn vocabulary related to the book Corduroy by Don Freeman: la salopette (overalls), le bouton (button), le nounours (teddy bear), les jouets (toys), and le policier (policeman). Livre: Un grand cerf de Virginie Guérin.

Chanson: "Promenons-nous dans les bois."

Performing and Creative Arts:

Art: After reading the book Corduroy by Don Freeman, we will paint Corduroy the bear and use different fabrics to give him overalls.

Drama: The Rainbow Fish- We will learn about the storyline and characters in this book in preparation for our spring performance!

Practical Life: Reduce, Reuse, Recycle... Based on what the children have learned so far about different recyclable materials, they will look for similar materials throughout the classroom. Happy hunting!

Social Skills: After reading I'm Gonna Like Me by Jamie Lee Curtis, we will discuss self-esteem. What makes us special and feel good about ourselves?

Bonne semaine!
